Course Overview

The key to understanding and managing people effectively is to know something about what makes people tick. What are the things that determine individual behavior and motivation. This program looks at the underlying assumptions we make about human behavior and explains them. In particular the workshop will apply this knowledge to understanding how to make Performance management more effective and efficient.

Course Objective

- Be more effective as a manager or supervisor
- Get the best out of your people
- Have developed a clearer picture of their own attitudes and behavior, and therefore also, of the motivation, attitudes and behavior of other people.
- Improve your skills in practical performance management - such as appraisal, discipline and grievance
